Glendale Police Needs Help Locating Kidnapping Suspect

GLENDALE, Ariz. – On Tuesday 5/7/2019 at approximately 11:00 AM, a 15-year-old female was loading something into her mother’s vehicle outside their apartment in the area of 6500 W. Maryland Avenue when she was approached by an adult male. The male suspect grabbed her from behind and dragged/carried her to a nearby alley while telling her “shut up, or I will kill you.” The 15yo female was able to kick and fight off the suspect breaking free of his grasp. The victim ran back home and immediately called 911. The suspect fled in an unknown direction and no vehicle was seen.

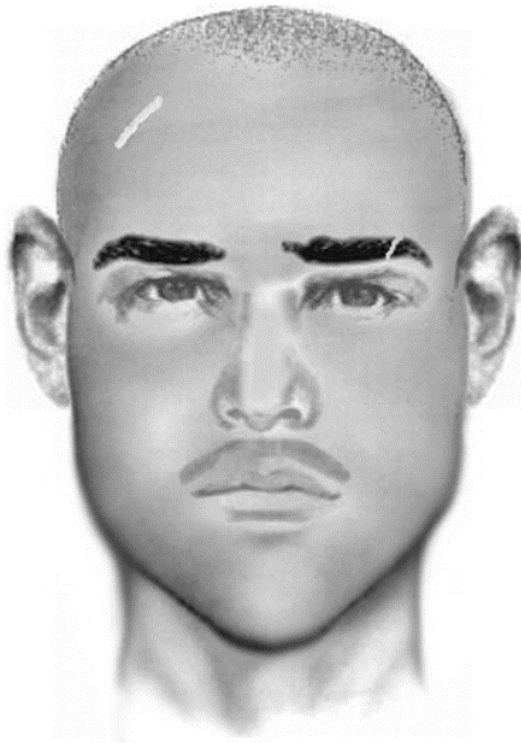

The victim described the suspect as a Hispanic male in his 30’s weighing approximately 180 pounds and approximately 5’ 9” tall with shaved or short black hair. The suspect was reported as having a scar on his upper right forehead and his left eyebrow partially shaved. He was seen wearing a short-sleeved shirt and blue jeans with a hole in the knee. The victim was able to complete a composite sketch which is provided below.

As this occurred during the daytime hours, we are hoping that someone witnessed the incident and has information to provide that will get this dangerous suspect off the streets. The Glendale Police Department has partnered up with Silent Witness and are asking anyone that has information about this incident or suspect to please call 623-930-3000 or Silent Witness at 480-WITNESS / 480-TESTIGO
