Glendale Police Arrest Dangerous Man After 48 Hour Crime Spree

GLENDALE, AZ. – On Wednesday, October 30, 2019, the Glendale Police Department responded for an 18-year-old female victim who reported she had been kidnapped, sexual assaulted, and the suspect attempted to kill her more than once. The victim told officers she was walking down the street with her puppy when the suspect drove up to her quickly and stunned her with his car door. She attempted bravely to scream and tried to fight him off. He threatened her to stop screaming or he would cut her with a knife, when she continued to fight, he did commit aggravated assault with a deadly weapon by cutting the victim. After the victim thought she was going to die he forced her into his vehicle and took her to another location where he sexual assaulted her and then attempted to murder her two more times. The victim was able to run away from the suspect and find someone to call 911. The suspect took the victim's personal belongings to include her puppy.
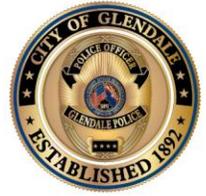

On Friday, November 1, 2019, the Glendale Police Department responded to three separate locations for three separate armed robberies. At the convenience store at 51st Ave and Orangewood he was dressed in a Halloween costume, at the motel near 59th Ave and Glendale he wore a surgical style mask, and at the gas station near 51st Ave and Olive he wore a Halloween hockey mask. The same suspect went inside each location armed with what was believed to be a semi-auto handgun demanding money from each clerk.

The suspect and his vehicle matched the description of the suspect from the attempted murder and sexual assault and the robberies. Detectives from both the Special
