Glendale Police Arrest Adult Male for Taking 15-Year-Old Girl to Iowa

GLENDALE, AZ. – Glendale Police arrested 21-year-old Kadin Alexander Daniel (Glendale resident) for custodial interference (class three felony) after purchasing plane tickets for himself and a 15-year-old female victim for travel to Iowa, without the parent’s knowledge. Glendale detectives are currently assisting an investigation with out of state police on possible sexual conduct with a minor offenses that occurred within their jurisdiction.

On May 20, 2021, at approximately 6:50AM, near 6200 W. North Lane parents of the young girl reported that she had possibly runaway from the home. Officers took a missing person’s report and she was entered into the national database as a missing/runaway juvenile. The school resource officer at the girl’s high school was contacted in case she was spotted on the campus or students had information of her whereabouts.

At approximately 6:00PM, police from Iowa removed the juvenile from the national missing person’s database and contacted her parents to release her into their custody. The parents were on their way to Iowa when Glendale police were notified that she had been recovered and was possibly with a former school employee, identified as Daniel. Daniel and the juvenile were believed to be communicating with each other through social media.
