Glendale Police Arrest Shooters from Overnight Homicide

GLENDALE, AZ. – Glendale Police arrest 18-year-old Marzeal Lewis and a 16-year-old juvenile male on charges of armed robbery and 1st degree murder.

On February 23, 2022, just after 11pm, Glendale Police responded to a call for service of a shooting at a restaurant near 43rd Avenue and Bethany Home Road. When officers arrived, they located the 30-year-old victim, Guadalupe Estevan Zamora. Zamora had been shot multiple times and was transported to a local hospital where he was later pronounced dead. The two suspects involved fled the scene prior to police arrival.

During the investigation detectives were able to determine Zamora was sitting on a restaurant patio with other acquaintances when he was approached by Lewis and a juvenile suspect. Lewis and the juvenile suspect both pointed a gun at Zamora while attempting to rob him. A short time later Lewis pistol whipped Zamora causing the gun to discharge. The juvenile suspect then fired three times, one round striking Lewis and the other two striking the victim, Zamora. Lewis received a non-life-threatening wound and fled the area with the juvenile. The next day Glendale Police identified both suspects involved and safely took them into custody.
