Glendale Police Welcome New Officer to the Public Information Office

GLENDALE, AZ. – The Glendale Police Department welcomes a new officer to the Public Information Office. Officer Gina Winn has moved into the position of Public Information Officer alongside Officer Tiffany Ngalula and Sergeant Randy Stewart.

Gina is a Minnesota native who was hired by the Glendale Police Department in 2016 as a Victim Advocate. In 2019, she was hired as a Police Officer where she has worked out of both our Foothills and Gateway substations. Gina is a member of our Peer Support Team, Dignitary Protection Unit and she is an AZ POST Certified General Instructor. Gina holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Corrections with a minor in Sociology from Minnesota State University at Mankato.

Officer Gina Winn, along with Jose Santiago, Sgt. Randy Stewart and Officer Tiffany Ngalula, will be taking the opportunity to visit your news desks soon so Gina can get acquainted with you all. Officer Winn is enthusiastic about this new assignment and looks forward to working with you. Please welcome her to the Glendale Police Public Information Office.
