Glendale Police Arrest Suspect in Shooting Homicide

(Glendale, AZ) Glendale police arrested 37-year-old Quincy Lofton for shooting and killing 41-year-old Maurice Marshall in an apartment complex parking lot.

Just after 7:15pm, on Tuesday, May 23, 2023, Glendale officers responded to reports of “shots fired” in the parking lot of an apartment complex near the 67-hundred block of West Glendale Avenue. Officers arrived and located an adult male victim with multiple gunshot wounds. The victim, identified as Maurice Marshall, was transported to a local hospital where he was later pronounced deceased.

The investigation determined Maurice and Lofton’s vehicles were parked next to one another when a verbal altercation occurred. Lofton proceeded to fire multiple rounds at Maurice before fleeing the area. Witness statements and surveillance footage led to the identification of Lofton.

Just after 2:30 pm on May 25, 2023, Lofton was located nearby the scene of the homicide and arrested without incident. He was booked on 2nd Degree Murder and Weapons charges. Lofton also had an outstanding warrant for Extreme DUI and was on probation for a significant history of violent felony offenses.
