

Proclamation

CITY OF GLENDALE

WHEREAS, Taylor Swift is one of the most influential and “bejeweled” musicians of her generation, with sales of more than 114 million digital and physical albums worldwide, making her one of the best-selling artists of all time; and*

WHEREAS, Glendale is so “enchanted to meet” her as she kicks off The Eras Tour at State Farm Stadium on March 17th and 18th; and*

WHEREAS, Swifties will get to “shake it off” to Taylor’s genre-bending music in Glendale’s state-of-the-art State Farm Stadium for the first time since her last tour five years ago; and*

WHEREAS, Fans would “dance in a storm in their best dress, fearless” to see Swift, but they likely won’t need to since, on average, Glendale has just three days of rain in March with a beautiful high temperature of 78 degrees; and*

WHEREAS, Glendale’s entire Sports and Entertainment District will be “dressed like a daydream” with delicious restaurants and fun shops, we’ve got everything you need to ensure it’s a night you’ll remember “all too well”; and*

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jerry P. Weiers, Mayor of the City of Glendale, Arizona, on behalf of the City Council, do hereby proclaim that on March 17 and 18, 2023, the city of Glendale, Arizona will be renamed*

SWIFT CITY

and all Swifties are encouraged to share their smiles “that could light up this whole town” on all social media platforms because “the best people in life are free.”

In witness hereof, I hereunto set my hand this 13th day of March 2023.

Attest.

Maralee Maes
DEPUTY CLERK

Jerry P. Weiers
MAYOR